Ayutthaya (Wat Yai Chaya Mongkol, Wat Panancheung, Wat Tagarong)
Dammakaya

Ayutthaya

Ayutthaya is a city in Thailand, about 80 kilometers north of Bangkok. It was capital of the Kingdom of Siam, and a prosperous international trading port, from 1350 until razed by the Burmese in 1767. The ruins of the old city now form the Ayutthaya Historical Park, an archaeological site that contains palaces, Buddhist temples, monasteries and statues. The park is on an island between 3 rivers.

Dammakaya

It is the world 's largest Buddhist monument where 300,000 Buddha images are enshrined on the exterior dome with an additional 700,000 Buddha images on the Dhammakaya Chetiya
